

Daily Life - New Guy In Town III (C0050)

A: Please make yourselves at home. Let me take your coats. Dinner is almost ready; I hope you brought your appetite

B: Your house is lovely, Armand! Very interesting decor...very...Gothic.

C: I think it's amazing! You have such good taste, Armand. I'm thinking of re-decorating my house; maybe you could give me a few pointers?

A: It would be my pleasure. Please have a seat. Can I offer you a glass of wine?

C: We would love some!

A: Here you are. A very special merlot brought directly from my home country. It has a unique ingredient which gives it a pleasant aroma and superior flavor.

C: Mmm... it's delicious!

B: It's a bit bitter for my taste... almost tastes like... like...

C: Ellen! Ellen! Are you okay?

A: Did she pass out?

C: Yeah...

A: I hope that you didn't poison her drink too much!
You'll ruin our meal!

Key Vocabulary

flavor

common noun, singular

the way something tastes

aroma	common noun, singular	the way something smells pointer	common noun, plural	tips, advice, hints
make yourselves at home	phrase	get comfortable and feel like you are in your own home
good taste	phrase	refers to liking nice things
bitter	Adjective	opposite of sweet
pass out	verb	faint, loss consciousness

Supplementary Vocabulary

sweet	Adjective	containing a lot of sugar
have a seat	phrase	sit down, take a seat
spike	principle verb, present simple	to add alcohol or drugs to (food or drink)

Learn English on your Terms

sour

Adjective

having an acid taste
that is like the taste of a lemon

exclusive

Adjective

only allowing in people
from a high social class